Conversation Was Bad

Coopersville.—We were sort of disusted recently at a conversation we chanced to hear between some, of our young men. There was quite a number and with one exception they all had a whine about not having a fair chance in the battles of life. To our positive knowledge not one of them had a good excuse for whining. Throw a sensible man out of the window and he will land on his feet and ask the nearest way to work. The more you have to begin with the less you have in the end. Money you earn yourself is much brighter than any you get out of a dead man's bags.
A scant breakfast in the morning of life whets the appetite for a feast later in the day. He who has tasted a sour apple will have the more relish for a sweet one. Your present want will make future prosperity all the sweeter. There is no excuse for any young man to be a whiner in our good town.
